Office of Accessibility Audio and/or VideoRecording Agreement Form

Under the Americans with Disabilities Actas Amended (2008) institutions of higher education must provide reasonable accommodations to students with disabilities and may not deny equal access to the institution's programs, courses, and activities. Audio and video recording of lectures is a reasonable accommodation for students with supporting documentation.

Faculty reserve the right to require a student who uses a recorder to sign an agreement for audio/video recording and present the form to the instructor.
