

3359-20-04.2 Faculty and special organizations.

Akron chapter of the American Association of U active on campus since 1932.

(2) Faculty senate committees with elected membership.

- (a) The faculty rights and responsibilities committee shall concern grievance matters relating to faculty assessments, retention, tenure, and promotion. This committee shall have one member from the tenured faculty of each degree granting college, one full-time faculty member from the university libraries, and one fulltime tenured faculty member from the libraries, elected by its fulltime faculty.
- (b) The university wellbeing committee shall concern the health and wellbeing, such as fringe benefits, insurance, and retirement. The committee shall be composed of one member from each of the degree granting colleges, elected by the full-time faculty member from the university libraries, one member from the contract professional staff, and one member from the parttime faculty currently employed by the university, elected by members of the parttime faculty.

(B) Special organizations concerned with university growth and development.

- (1) The university of Akron foundation, established in 1932, is a foundation. Its purpose is to help develop and improve the university by encouraging gifts and bequests of money to be held, and administer such gifts and bequests exclusively for the benefit of the university.
- (2) The partners in excellence is a group of industries and organizations that provide financial support of the university.
- (3) The John R. Buchtel society is an organization which encourages and make contributions to the university through the four following categories recognized through seven gift clubs: 1870 benefactor club; $10,000 annually, $50,000 lifetime contribution, or $100,000 lifetime club; dean's club, centuryclub and loyalty club. Gifts made to the university through these clubs are tax deductible.

purpose or may be given as unrestricted.

- (4) Zip athletic club is a resource development arm of the university of Akron, department of athletics, the purpose of which is to secure financial resources to support the entire athletic program.
- (5) E.J. Thomas performing arts enrichment fund is dedicated to the encouragement of support of the performing arts and the building where they can best be enjoyed, the E.J. Thomas performing arts hall.
- (6) The friends of the university library is a group of interested alumni and friends working to improve the holdings and services of the university libraries.
- (7) The friends of Hower house are public spirited citizens, clubs, and organizations who, through their dues and efforts, are helping to assure the restoration and preservation of the university's Hower house at 60 Fir Hill.
- (8) Varsity 'A.' an athletic affiliation group of individuals who earned athletic letters in varsity sports participation at the university.

Replaces:	3359-20-04.2
Effective:	01/31/2015
Certification:	<hr/> Ted A. Mallo Secretary Board of Trustees
Promulgated Under:	111.15
Statutory Authority:	3359
Rule Amplifies:	3359
Prior Effective Dates:	11/27/89, 07/20/90, 05/22/91, 09/16/96