

3359-44-01      The establishment of assembly procedures.

(A) Whereas the university of Akron recognizes and encourages the exercise of rights consistent with the Constitutions of the state of Ohio and of the United States of America. In this regard the university of Akron also recognizes that the first amendment of the Constitution of the United States of America imposes upon state universities three propositions:

- (1) Expression cannot be prohibited because of disagreement of or dislike for its content; and
- (2) Expression is subject to reasonable nondiscriminatory regulations of time, place, and manner; and
- (3) Expression can be prohibited if it takes the form of action that materially and substantially interferes with the normal activities of the institution or invades the rights of others; and

- (4) Assemblies shall be restricted to an area appropriate for the activity as determined by the president of the university or the president's authorized designee.
- (5) The sponsoring group or person of any assembly is responsible for all normal costs incurred by the university as well as any unusual costs to insure the peaceful accomplishment of the event.
- (6) The sponsoring group or person of any assembly is responsible for making necessary arrangements with other offices and personnel as directed.
- (7) Registration procedures, scheduling of facilities, location of set-up arrangements, etc., shall be administered by the identified university office(s). Sound equipment may be restricted in locations which are in close proximity to classrooms, laboratories, offices, or university residence halls.
- (8) Persons present at any assembly or public display which violates university regulations or which might be considered unruly or unlawful will be deemed participants if they fail to remove themselves when ordered by an authorized university official. At a time when such assemblies might be considered unruly or unlawful, or become disruptive of any university process or violative of any university regulation, bystanders and participants will be ordered to leave and will be subject to disciplinary sanctions including immediate suspension and/or arrest if they do not. This regulation is intended to make it clear that spectators by their very presence contribute to the dimensions of the problems encountered in mass gatherings and that no student is immune from due process of law enforcement when in violation as an individual or as a member of a crowd.
- (9) The use of university facilities for any purpose is subject to hour regulations as established by the university.
- (10) Individuals participating in any assembly, are reminded that they are responsible to local, state, and federal laws as well as to university regulations.

3359-44-01

3

Replaces: 3359-44-01

Effective: 01/31/2015